

News Release
October 3, 2017

Bikeshare Hawaii Announces Board of Directors

Five distinguished Hawaii leaders join nonprofit board

HONOLULU – Bikeshare Hawaii, the managing nonprofit of Biki, Honolulu’s new bikeshare program, is pleased to announce the election of five board members to its board of directors: Josh Feldman, President and CEO of Tori Richard, Ltd.; Michael Robinson, Vice President, Government Relations & Community Affairs for Hawai’i Pacific Health; Marcy Fleming, Commercial Real Estate Division Transactions Manager for Kamehameha Schools; Wes Frysztacki, City and County of Honolulu Department of Transportation Services Director; and Randy Moore, retired business executive.

“With the successful launch of Biki in Honolulu, we’re excited to welcome our new board members to help guide Bikeshare Hawaii into the future,” said Greg Gaug, board chair. “These individuals bring a wealth of professional experience and knowledge, and will be tremendous assets as we chart the future of Biki.”

The new board members will be joining Bikeshare Hawaii’s inaugural board members who are: Bruce Coppa, Capitol Consultants of Hawaii President; Rick Egged, Waikiki Improvement Association President, and Greg Gaug, Ulupono Initiative Vice President of Investments. Gaug will continue to serve as board chair.

Josh Feldman is President and CEO of Tori Richard, Ltd. He’s currently Vice Chair of the board of directors for Honolulu Museum of Art, and previously served on the board of Young Presidents Organization and was the former Vice Chair of the Hawaii Public Radio board. He received his bachelor’s degree from University of California, San Diego.

Michael Robinson is Vice President, Government Relations and Community Affairs with Hawai’i Pacific Health. He’s active with other local nonprofit organizations serving on the board as Vice Chair of the Hawai’i Public Health Institute, March of Dimes Hawai’i-Chapter, Chair Public Affairs Committee, and Co-Chair of the Workplace Environment & Competitiveness Committee, Hawai’i Chamber of Commerce. Mike is a graduate of Maryknoll High School and earned his bachelor’s degree from Cornell University in economics and government, and also earned an master’s degree in economics and master of business administration from the University of Hawai’i, Manoa.

Marcy Fleming, Commercial Real Estate Division Transactions Manager for Kamehameha Schools, has over 30 years of experience in finance, banking and commercial real estate. She has served on numerous philanthropic boards and is the past Board Chair of the YWCA of Oahu, and Treasurer and Scholarship Committee Chair for Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation. Fleming received her Master of Business Administration from UCLA Anderson School of Management.

Wes Frysztacki, City and County of Honolulu Department of Transportation Services Director, is a certified civil and traffic engineer with a wide range of experience working on Honolulu’s bus system, rail project, and transit-oriented development plans. He received his master’s degree in civil engineering from Villanova University.

Randy Moore, is a retired business executive middle school teacher, and Department of Education administrator. Moore has been a director or trustee of a number of nonprofit organizations and for-profit companies and a member of various government boards and commissions. He is currently board chair and director of the Hawai'i Housing Development Corporation, director of Grove Farm Company, Inc., and Vice Chair of the University of Hawaii Board of Regents.

"I'm grateful for the support of these business and community leaders for Honolulu's bikeshare program and look forward to working with them towards our goal of providing an affordable, healthy and environmentally friendly transportation option to Hawaii residents and visitors," said Lori McCarney, Bikeshare Hawaii Executive Director.

ABOUT BIKI

Biki is Honolulu's new bikeshare program, managed by Bikeshare Hawaii, a not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization. Launched on June 28, 2017, Biki offers 100 conveniently located self-service "Biki Stops" from Chinatown to Diamond Head with a capacity of up to 1,000 Biki bikes. Biki's team of dedicated local employees are on board to answer questions and resolve issues, keep Biki Stops well maintained and stocked, and ensure bikes are all set to ride. Biki bikes, manufactured by PBSC Urban Solutions, are designed to be easy to maneuver, comfortable and fun to ride, while accommodating riders of all sizes. Honolulu is the first city in the world to have this new generation of bike. For more information, visit gobiki.org and follow Biki on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

ABOUT BIKESHARE HAWAII

Bikeshare Hawaii is a not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization created to launch and manage a bikeshare program in Hawaii through strong public-private partnerships. Bikeshare Hawaii is currently supported by the City and County of Honolulu and the State of Hawaii, along with major donors and smaller supporters alike. As a community-based nonprofit organization, Bikeshare Hawaii seeks donations to support its goal to be financially self-sustaining. Bikeshare Hawaii provides a viable transportation option for many, and benefits both the private and public sector.

###